Sunday School is the generic name for many different types of religious education pursued on Sundays by various Christian denominations. Today many different expressions of Sunday School exist. They range from traditional methods of teaching, using small groups, bible-based teaching, familiar songs, and even to more contemporary. Sunday School is strongly associated with children, but in reality is vital to every one of all age groups. It's the beginning of our Christian beliefs. Here at Church of the Harvest we have classes for everyone from nursery all the way through adulthood. We are very blessed with people who love to teach and provide instruction for each class. Sunday School class should be a part of our worship on Sundays. Great leaders of our country have been Sunday School teaches – Jimmy Carter and Theodore Roosevelt. Come join one of these exciting and informative classes. Check out the SS page for current lesson series for each age group.
